

The Secret of EXPECTATIONS

Prophet

NAMARA ERNEST

Expectation is the mother of miracles.

Our Father is a God of expectations – a God who works with faith. What are you expecting from the Almighty God for whom nothing is impossible?

Remember the woman with the issue of blood (Luke 8:43-48). She had spent 12 years and all her money seeking healing, all in vain. From what she had heard about Jesus, her expectation of Him was big. In her heart, she believed that Jesus was so powerful that mere contact with His clothes was enough to heal the issue that had failed doctors near and far.

She pondered in her heart, 'If I can only touch the hem of Jesus' garment, I will be healed.' So, she squeezed her way through the crowd, bent over and touched his garment. Instantly, she was healed. In the same instant, Jesus felt power leave him to fulfil an expectation! Jesus later told her, 'Thy faith hath made thee whole.'

What are you expecting? Take the time to ponder about it in your heart. It may take you days of pondering in your heart.

For example, you can ponder, 'When I meet the man of God, when I meet the prophet, if he prays for me, if he lays his hands on me, if I get in contact with him, the moment he mentions my issue, I know without a shadow of a doubt that something has happened...'
Grow this in your spirit.

This kind of expectation is the place the Spirit of God would have us grow into so that we as sons of God are not affected by the same things the people of the world are.

Like our fathers in the faith who looked for a city built by God, let us expect better things (Hebrews 11). Enoch walked with God and dodged death! Noah built an ark on dry land! Abraham considered not his age or the age of his wife but the promise of descendants.

He did not hesitate to lead Isaac to the sacrifice because in his heart, he had already invoked the first resurrection!

Therefore, expect better! Desire supernatural health. Desire supernatural provision. Desire dominion. Do not surrender your position in the realm of the spirit.

Do not leave these things unto the sons of men because the sons of men only do as their father the devil tells them to do.

According to the promises of God and your expectation, so shall it be in your life. When Jesus returns, will he find you believing? Will he find you occupying? If you need mercy, the hand of God is available. If you need divine help, the Spirit of God is willing. The power of God is present. The anointing of the Holy Ghost is available to change your life; to move you; to rescue your future; to rescue your job; to rescue all your things (Hebrews 4:16).

What do you expect?
